

It has really been a treat to have the No Call List the way it is in Wisconsin. I don't get as many annoying telemarketers at supper time as I used to. The few I still get I just hang up on anyway. As far as I'm concerned they have no business calling me unless I initiate the contact.